

MILITANT SOCIALISM.

MR TOM MANN'S VISIT TO NEWCASTLE.

Mr Tom Mann, the stormy petrel of the Socialist movement, visited Newcastle yesterday, after an absence of about fifteen years, and addressed two large and enthusiastic meetings in the Town Hall.

NUMBER OF WORKING HOURS PER DAY.

The night meeting, at which Mr Mann addressed himself chiefly to the question of industrial organisation, was presided over by Mr Colin Veitch, the well-known local footballer, and captain of the Newcastle United Club.

During recent years, said Mr Mann, a very con-
